

Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator™ Candidacy Policy Statement

Sobriety Commitment¹

At Leadem Counseling & Consulting Services, P.C. we believe that we can only hope to be of optimal service to those we serve if we are willing to do whatever we ask of others. It is for this reason that we ask you to acknowledge and accept the following:

I commit to be free of any active personal addiction of any type and attest to that fact by my signature below. Furthermore, I commit that if I or someone else is concerned about the stability of my sobriety I will go to any length to address those concerns.

I acknowledge that by signing this form I understand and agree with the entirety of the above statement:

Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator™ Candidacy Policy Statement

Legal & Ethical Statement

Leadem Counseling & Consulting Services, P.C. (LCCS) is committed to helping individuals grow in their knowledge of how to help others intervene upon a relapse process. At LCCS, we believe this is a skill set that licensed and non-licensed educators alike could benefit from and implement. However, it is imperative that by reading and signing this document you acknowledge that LCCS is not certifying you to treat addiction or mental illness, to counsel, or coach anyone through the management of life or health challenges. Additionally, the mentorship that one must undergo to become certified as a Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator™ is not clinical supervision and should not be used to replace clinical supervision if you need it. Furthermore, you acknowledge that *An Ounce of Prevention: A Course in Relapse Prevention*², is a course book for self-guided or aided study and not a treatment plan.

If you are a licensed professional you agree to abide by all of the laws, ethical regulations and standards of your governing body. As a Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator™, you agree to implement the skills taught in the training and mentorship experience within the scope of your practice/profession as dictated by your licensure, training/or certification and the laws of your state.

LCCS reserves the right to terminate, suspend, deny or revoke one's certification or progress in becoming a Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator™ if staff from LCCS becomes aware that a candidate or Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator™ has failed to abide by any of the laws, ethical regulations or standards of his or her governing body(ies). Additionally, there will be no refund of fees paid if a candidate's certification is deemed inactive for cause.

If such action is taken by LCCS, LCCS will remove a Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator or candidate from its website if he or she paid for this marketing service. Additionally, there will be no refund of fees paid if candidate's certification is deemed inactive for cause.

Any candidate or Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator that has had his or her certification or training terminated, suspended, denied or revoked shall immediately cease referring to himself or herself as a Certified Relapse Prevention Navigator or candidate and shall remove all reference from his or her website, social media platforms and marketing materials.

² Plotting a Course to Sobriety: A Model for Relapse Prevention (the title may change, but in any permutation the limited scope remains the same).

LCCS reserves the right to modify these terms at any time but commits to notifying all current Certified Relapse Prevention Navigators™ if and when these changes occur.

LCCS will not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, age, physical or mental ability, marital status, or status as a disabled veteran.
